NEW YORK PLAYERS BOOST HAL CHASE

Say He Is More Capable Than Stallings—Hemphill Has His Say.

Special Dispatch to The Star.
NEW YORK, September 30.—The Highlanders arrived home from their last western trip of the season yesterday, and some of them went to the Polo Grounds in the afternoon to look over the Giants and Reds. Hal Chase, who has succeeded George Stallings as manager of the Highlanders, was not inclined to discuss the recent controversy in the club beyond saying:

"The charges made against me were absolutely untrue. I never 'lay down' in my life, and every base ball player on the team will bear me out. The players are with me heart and soul, too. They showed plenty of loyalty and earnestness in Detroit, where we won three straight games. Our team is harmonious and there is no longer any ill feeling caused by abuse heaped upon the men from the bench. I didn't seek the management, but as long as Mr. Farrell has appointed me I will do my level best to make good. We are going to hang on to second place, and will be in prime shape for the games with the Giants."

Several leading members of the team, who did not care to have their names mentioned, said that the appointment of Chase was the best possible move under the circumstances. Charley Hemphill, the outfielder, was willing to be quoted, however.

"Stallings made many blunders and also played favorites," said Hemphill. "His abuse of the players on the bench was outrageous. He was outclassed by Chase and others in a knowledge of the fine points of team play and his removal was the best thing that could have happened. If Chase had been manager all season we would have been right on top of the Athletics."

The hitlist players say Chase showed what he was made of when he took Quinn out of the line in the last game with Detroit. He did not wait too long, but substituted Vaughn at precisely the proper moment. If the pitching department had been handled this way all season, say the players who will talk, numerous defeats would have been avoided. After the series with the Washingtons, who, by the way, are playing fast ball, the Highlanders go over to Philadelphia for three games with the Athletics, after which they will return here a week from tomorrow for a double-header with the Boston Red Sox, which will wind up the American League season. The Giants begin their last series of four games in Boston today. Next Wednesday is an open date for McGraw's men, who will play Brooklyn in Harlem on Thursday and Friday, then go over to Washington Park for the final game of the series on Saturday, October 8. The Giants have three games to play with the Philadelphia here, including a postponed contest. By arranging a double-header for October 10 and bringing forward the other game to October 11, McGraw's men can begin one proposed series with the Highlanders on October 12 or 13.

ROUGH ON JENNINGS.

Many of His Friends Swindled by Clever Trick.

DETROIT, Mich., September 30.—Manager Hugh Jennings of the Americans received new but disagreeable proof of his popularity in Detroit yesterday. Some swindler has been circulating among well-to-do people representing himself as a committee to collect funds to purchase a home for Jennings and his bride. Jennings is to be married in November. Jennings' friends, without waiting to investigate, jumped at the chance and shelled out checks. Representative Denby was one of those who gave $30. Jennings was charmed and angry when he heard of the swindle.

RAIN MAY PREVENT NATIONALS MEETING HIGHLANDERS TODAY

New York Fans Eager to See Team in Action Under Hal Chase's Direction—Quinn Slated to Pitch.

Special Dispatch to The Star.
NEW YORK, September 30.—It's no easy ride from Chicago to New York. The Washington players will certify to that. The nearer the team got to the city the farther the city appeared to be from them. When they did fall upon the metropolis they were tired and glad that they had got away from the railroad. Were it not for the fact that a nasty east wind began to blow about 9 o'clock this morning and predictions for rain for the afternoon there would have been no small crowd at American League Park today, because there are not a few fans who want to go out to see if Chase looks any different as manager than he did as first baseman.

Not all of the fans here are satisfied with the manner in which the change was made by Frank Farrell. Some think that Chase has tried to undermine every manager who has been connected with the team. That is the extreme view, for Chase is too much of a boy and too open in his manner to do much, if anything, of that kind. Probably he gets homesick once in a while. Most of the "native sons" do.

When they begin to think of the fields and orchards of California they are eager to get away from the east. Chase says that he will work to the best of his ability as manager of the team, but he will find that being manager and player, too, is not an easy stunt.

Jim McKeever left this morning to attend the funeral of a close friend in Youngstown. He will be back Monday. In the meantime George McBride will be in charge of the team.

Babe Adams in Form.

BROOKLYN, September 30.—Brooklyn used up three pitchers in an effort to make it five straight from Pittsburgh yesterday, but the visitors won by 7 to 2. Burke's wildness in the third and Desautels' ineffectiveness in the sixth were costly. Adams allowed only four hits. Score: R. H. E. Pittsburgh.....0 0 3 0 0 4 0 0 7 11 1 Brooklyn.....0 1 0 0 1 0 0 0 2 4 0

Giants Defeat the Reds.

NEW YORK, September 30.—New York took the last game from Cincinnati yesterday, 5 to 4, through Murray's clever pitching and Ames' steadiness at critical times. Rescher, Cincinnati's left fielder, had his left hand lacerated and his chest badly injured, when he ran against one of the field boxes in the fifth inning. He had to be taken to a hospital. The score: R. H. E. New York.....0 0 0 0 4 0 1 0 x 5 10 3 Cincinnati.....0 1 1 0 0 2 0 0 4 8 0

Philadelphia Fans Are All Worked Up Over Big Show

PHILADELPHIA, September 30.—Although it is more than two weeks before the opening game of the world's series between the Athletics of Philadelphia and Cubs of Chicago will be played, there is a tremendous demand for tickets here. Hundreds who have never been regular patrons of the game have caught the fever and the leading bankers, professional and society men are trying to pull wires for pastebards. All want the highest-priced seats, which will probably be listed at $3. The series is attracting far more than the 1905 games between the Athletics and Giants of New York. Delegations are expected from cities within a radius of 100 miles and more. It is estimated that Shibe Park will accommodate about 30,000 under the world's series rules.

DISTRICT BOWLING LEAGUE.

Takes in Three New Teams and Opens Season October 10.

The District of Columbia Bowling League, founded 1885, the oldest of its kind in the District, has again organized for the coming season and will, as heretofore, consist of six teams recruited from the best talent in town. Owing to the disbandment of two teams and the resignation of another, the following clubs were elected to membership in this league to fill the vacancies created: Arcade Bowling Club, home alleys, the Arcade; Railroad Y. M. C. A., home alleys, Union station, and Central Y. M. C. A., home alleys, Y. M. C. A.

The other three teams that have been affiliated with the league for a long number of years are the Carroll Institute, the Samsenbund and the Chamber of Commerce.

As this league has the backing of a large number of the most prominent business men in town, its financial success is assured at the outset. The teams all being fairly evenly balanced, an interesting and spiritedly contested race for the championship is looked for.

Any reports to the effect that this league has disbanded are absolutely without foundation. All indications point to the league having the most successful season since its existence, there being absolute harmony among the members, which, unfortunately, has not always been the case in former years.

The following is a list of the officers: President, F. A. Eckstein; vice president, H. A. Marsden; secretary-scorer, A. C. Machler; treasurer, G. G. Hammer.

The league will open its season Monday, October 10, at the Royal bowling alleys.
